Failure to adhere to these Safety Rules, participation in the zipslide may be denied without any liability to you by Epic Xperience.

3. All participants knowingly and freely assume and accept all such risks and take full responsibility for their participation in the event and Chest Heart & Stroke Scotland, its employees or agents will not be liable for any loss, damage, action, claim, costs or expenses, which may arise in consequence of participation in the event.

4. All participants will be required to complete a Participation Agreement form on the day of the event and will also be weighed as a safety precaution. It is responsibility for each charity to ensure each participant knows to visit the registration desk on arrival.

5. CHSS want to make the fundraising event as accessible as possible to all participants. However, participants must be able to take part safely. Therefore, if they have any medical conditions that would prevent them from safely participating in the event or have any doubts about their physical fitness or health, it is their responsibility to consult with a qualified medical professional before taking part.

6. We also ask that any participants with any disabilities or pre-existing medical conditions which may affect their ability to participate, please let us know as soon as possible, so we can look at how best we can support them during the event

7. In return for a guaranteed place on the fundraising event, you must pay CHSS the stated fees. We reserve the right to cancel or postpone the event if we consider there is an unacceptable risk (e.g., severe adverse weather) to the event participants, our staff or the general public. If this event was cancelled prior to the event date, we would endeavor to reschedule this event rather than offer refunds.

8. Should your charity have to withdraw or cannot fulfil your places there will be no refund payable.

9. Each charity will deal with their own registration fees and fundraising for participants before, throughout and after the event..

10. All participants are responsible for their personal belongings during the event. The event organisers and instructors will not be held liable for any loss, theft, or damage to personal property.

11. Participants' supporters and family members who spectate at the event do so at their own risk. They must abide by any rules, instructions and regulations provided in advance, displayed or given on the day by CHSS and contracted agencies, police and officials. CHSS will not be liable for any injury or loss that might occur as a result of their attendance.

12. By participating in the event, participants grant CHSS & Epix Xperience the right to use any photographs, videos, or other media taken during the event for promotional and marketing purposes, both online and offline, including but not limited to social media, websites, print materials, and advertisements, without compensation or further consent. You acknowledge that these materials may be shared with third parties for promotional purposes related to the abseiling event. If participants do not want their image taken, please inform before taking part.
